Lexington High First In Interscholastic Tourney

First With Total of 34½ Points; Louisville Male High Second with 32½ Counters, and Score of Other High Schools Bring Up the Rear

MOST SUCCESSFUL MEET EVER HELD HERE

Lexington High School took first honors in the Kentucky Interscholastic Tournament which was held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. The final score in the tournament was Lexington 35 1-5 points; Louisville High, 32½, and a score of others in the rear.

The meet was the most successful of its kind ever held in Lexington and about one hundred high school pupils from all over the State were in Lexington for the tournament. Gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded point winners and nearly every school annexed one trophy.

Lexington got a long lead on the other schools in the musical and oratorical contests held Thursday and Friday, scoring three firsts for a total of fifteen points, and it was this lead that gave Morton High the necessary margin to win over Louisville, as the Falls City lads were the winners in the track and field events held Saturday afternoon.

Thursday's program included the dramatic readings for girls, piano solos, and violin contests. Lexington was victorious in two of these, Miss Lucille Bannister winning the reading contest and Sidney Freeman taking first place in the violin contest. The piano solo contest was won by Miss Mary Phelps, of the Anderson County High School. In the reading contest won by Miss Bannister, Miss Willa McElroy was second and Miss Marie Menefee third. Thornton Waters finished second in the violin contest and in the piano finals Miss Ria Ross and Miss May Brock finished second and third, respectively.

On Friday night, Miss Davelle Dicoct, of Lexington High, was given the decision of the judges in the vocal solo contest and was awarded a gold medal over six other contestants. Ruby Cason, of Cynthiaana, was second and Miss Margaret Lyle, of Stanton, third.

In the boys' declamation contest, Hugo Faustine, of Louisville Male, was first; Jasper McBrayer, of Anderson County High School, second, and A. B. Weaver, of Louisville Manual, third.

A girls' quartet from Maysville was judged for first honors over two mixed quartets from Springfield and Cynthiaana, and a male quartette from Cynthiaana.

Louisville Male had only one entry in these events and he carried off the first prize in the declamation contest.

FIVE HONORARY DEGREES TO BE GIVEN IN JUNE

Men to Receive Degrees Have All Visited the College This Year

The faculty of State University decided at a meeting last week to award five honorary degrees to men of distinction at the coming graduation exercises in June.

The men upon whom degrees will be conferred are Henry S. Breckinridge, Assistant Secretary of War; Dr. Frederick Sheets Jones, of Yale University; Dr. Aquilla Webb, of Louisville; Col. Bennett H. Young, all of whom will be given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws; and David Francis Crawford, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, who will be given a degree of Doctor of Engineering. All of these men have visited the university and the last named, President Crawford, delivered a series of lectures before the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering during the past school year.

The rating of students to receive commencement honors was defined for the first time in a resolution passed by the faculty at the meeting. The first law reads as follows:

The Law.

1. To be eligible for "commencement honors," a student must have been in attendance at the university three full years.
 2. No student shall be eligible for "commencement honors," if he shall have incurred a condition nor unless he shall have maintained a minimum standing of 50 per cent. A's, 40 per cent. R's, 10 per cent. C's.
- That the names of those students whose scholarship records would make them eligible for "commencement honors" be submitted by the Registrar to the faculties of their respective colleges, and that it shall be the duty of each faculty to consider carefully the character and personality of each candidate and to report in writing to the Registrar its selection of honor students.

Professor J. T. C. Noe, of the Department of Education, addressed the pupils of the Mt. Sterling High School last week on "Hamlet." He went to Columbia the next night to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the high school

CATS MEET HAWAIIANS AND CATS GET DEFEATED

Tricky Chinese Take the Long End of a 6-to-4 Score in an Interesting Game

In one of the best games seen on Stoll Field this season the Hawaiians won out over the Wildcats 6-4. It was hard fought all the way and at no time was the game safe for either team. The Wildcats led off with the scoring in the fourth, tallying three runs, but the "furriners" came back with three in the fifth, and three more in the sixth.

McClelland, the young Springfield lad, started the game and flung a good game until the sixth frame, when he was touched up for several bingles. To the joy of the fans, Captain Jimmy Park made his initial appearance on the mound when he started the seventh. In his three innings nine men faced him without a hit. The score by innings:

First inning—Ayau flied to Spalding, Lal hit a hot one to Turkey, but was an easy out at first; J. Chin out, Dutch to Squirrelly.

Schrader walked; Waters fanned; Turkey hit safely between first and second, but was forced at second, when Curt hit to J. Chin; Rasty walked, soaking the bases, but Squirrelly's long fly to left failed to materialize.

Second Inning—Marx out, Waters to Squirrelly; Yim singled to center and went to second on a wild throw by Chicken; Lee fanned; Yap out, Schrader to Squirrelly.

Spalding popped out to Yim; Reed drew a pass ticket; McClelland whiffed and Schrader flied to Ayau.

Third Inning—Let out, McClelland to Tuttle; C. Chin poled for a single in left, but was forced when Ayau hit to Schrader; Ayau pliffed second; Lal out, J. Park to Tuttle.

Waters doubled to left field fence; Jim Park hit a slow one to Lal, who fumbled, and Jim was safe; Waters advanced; Chicken sacrificed to Lee, scoring Waters; Wright missed the ball three times; Tuttle tripped to right, scoring Jim, and chalked himself when Mark let one go by.

Fourth Inning—J. Chin out, J. Park to Tuttle; Mark flied out to Schrader; Yim popped to Tuttle.

McClelland fanned; Schrader flied to J. Chin; Waters got a scratch down third; J. Park flied out to Sal.

Fifth Inning—Lee beat out a slow one to McClelland; Yap safe and hit one to J. Park when he fumbled; Let beat out a bunt to McClelland, flitting the bases; C. Chin flied out to J. Park, and Ayau hit one to J. Park, forcing Lee at home, but Curt Park missed one and Yap scored; Lal hit to Schrader, who fumbled and Let and Ayau scored; Lal was thrown out at second.

Curt Park hit out Yap and Wright popped to Yap; Tuttle walked and

1915-16 Staff Selected For 'Idea' Management

Sketches of Staff Members Who Will Assist in Getting Out "THE IDEA" Next Year Indicate That Paper Will Be a "Hummer"

FIRST MEETING OF STAFF THIS AFTERNOON

ANNUAL CAMPUS CIRCUS ON JUNE 8TH THIS YEAR

$100 in Prizes to be Given; Entry List Closes in Next Few Days

The annual Campus Circus will be given in a mammoth tent on the university campus Tuesday, June 8th, and some of the best talent in the institution is being made ready to make it the best "circus" yet.

This year's "colic" will include humorous "take offs" on everyday items, a sure 'nuf minstrel show with end men, the interlocutor and the inevitable bones, a stunt with a menagerie of wild animals that will make you sit up and take notice, and other features, all of which are calculated to tickle your risibilities and work on your laugh-producing mechanism until you could take a 20-mile ride in a Ford and still feel good.

To make the circus doubly interesting to the participants, the alumni of the university have donated $100, which will be given as follows:

- For the best one-act comedy to be produced, $25.
- For the best clown, $5.
- For the best quartette, $10.
- For the best character song, $5.
- For the best tumbler and acrobat, $15.
- For the best eccentric dancer, $10.

The remaining $30 will be awarded for other stunts, further details of which will appear next week.

Professor C. P. Weaver who is in charge of the event, announces that a number of entries have already been received, but that anyone with a worth-while stunt may participate if he will turn in his name immediately. See Professor Weaver.

CHORAL SOCIETY GIVES THE CANTATA "RUTH"

Last Saturday night the Choral Society of State University presented the cantata "Ruth" before a large and appreciative audience in the university chapel. The play was given primarily in honor of the students from the different high schools which were holding a joint scholastic meet here.

Under the able direction of Professor Harlowe F. Dean, Alfred Gaul's sacred cantata was pleasantly given. Remarkable talent was shown throughout the entire performance by all who participated.

Because of its length the program cannot be given here.

The staff of THE IDEA for next year has been completed and is as follows:

BUSINESS STAFF.

W. J. Harris.....Business Manager

This staff which will assume charge at the beginning of the fall term next September, was selected after careful consideration and thought, and is believed to represent the best talent in this line in the university.

It will be noticed that a number of radical changes have been made in the usual arrangement of the staff. These changes have been made in accordance with the intention of running next year's paper on a strictly systematic and business-like policy. It is believed that the arrangement for next year will be an improvement on that of the past, in that the work will be so divided that no one person will be required to do everything, but the work will be divided evenly among a number of persons. In this way, the paper will be improved and no one person will be over-worked.

It is expected that the paper will be larger next year than ever before and space will be given to a number of new features, which will be announced later. One of these will be a section controlled exclusively by the "co-eds" and in charge of hte "Co-ed"itor, Miss Rebecca Smith. The Girls' Issue this year was such a success, that it was thought advisable to turn over a part of the paper each week to the young ladies, and whether this section is devoted to woman's suffrage or the fall fashions will depend on Miss Smith and her associates.

'15-'16 STAFF SELECTED

J. Franklin Corn, Editor-in-Chief; B. N. Peak, Assistant Editor, and W. J. Harris, Business Manager, were elected some time ago by THE IDEA Board of Control. All of the remaining members of the staff have been chosen since then.

John R. Marsh, of Maysville, who will be the Managing Editor, is a Junior, major English, student in the Arts and Science Department.

The position of Assistant Managing Editor was created when the plans for next year were being formulated and when it was decided to issue a larger paper. It was believed that the Managing Editor should have someone to assist him in handling the great amount of work which he has to do, and Miss Anita Crabbe, of Louisville, was chosen for this responsible position. Although Miss Crabbe is a Freshman, she has had extensive experience in newspaper work before entering school, and is one of the best proof and copy-readers in the Department of Journalism.

Kenneth Doris, of Dixon, who is known to the students as this year's Managing Editor, will be on this year's staff as Paragraph Editor. He will continue in charge of the paragraph column.

The girls' department will be in charge of Miss Rebecca Smith, of Paducah, who will have the title of "Co-Editor." She will have charge of all news items relating to the young ladies of the university. Miss Ruth was one of the editors of the Girls' Issue, published a few weeks ago, so we may be sure that her department will be creditably managed.

"Sports" will be handled next year by McClarty Harbison, of Shelbyville, who is at present a reporter on the Lexington Herald in this same department. Mr. Harbison took up journalistic work for the first time at the beginning of the school year last fall, but he has shown decided talent in this line and since going on The Herald, two months ago, has done some excellent work in writing the university games.

All of the news of the different departments will go through the hands of a Departmental Editor next year. This position will be held by W. C. Shinnick, who is also a reporter on The Herald at the present time. Mr. Shinnick has been doing newspaper work for a number of years, both in his home town and in Lexington and is eminently capable of taking this position.

Each one of the department news writers were chosen with the view of getting the best newspaper man in the department. J. T. Gooch, of Hanson, will be in charge of the Law Department news and will also be in charge of all "locals." This will include all literary society, Y. M. C. A., and lecture course news, and also dormitory personals, news of the intercollegiate contests and other campus news.

Julius Wolf, of Lexington, has been writing his class news every year since he entered school and is well fitted to take control of the Mechanical Department news.

S. J. Caudill, of Cannel City, who will write the mining news for the Transit next year, has also been secured to take charge of this department of THE IDEA staff.

The "ag" news will be handled by James McConnell, Jr., of Arlington, who will be one of next year's seniors in this department. Mr. McConnell has taken work in the department of Journalism and has fitted himself for this position.

The news of the fraternities and sororities will be given a larger place next year than heretofore. It is hoped that the members of the various secret organizations will take an interest in this department and help us to make it a success. Lee McClain, a Kappa Alpha and Alpha Delta Sigma, will have charge of the fraternity news and Miss Martha Willis, a Kappa Kappa Gamma, the sorority news.

Miss Katherine Mitchell, one of next year's seniors in "The Department" (so-called in the Girls' Issue), will be in charge of the home economics news. This is rapidly becoming one of the best known departments in the university and this news should furnish interesting reading next year.

The Department of Education news will be handled by Miss Elsie Heller. Miss Heller is well acquainted with the work of this department and will be a good "man" for the position.

Six of the best of the underclassmen in the Journalism Department have been selected to act as reporters on our newspaper next year. These are: Estill Woods, of Pinckard; H. J. Evans, of Frankfort; W. T. Cottingham, of Paris; M. C. Finney, of Frankfort; Miss Mildred Taylor and Miss Margaret Cassidy, both of Lexington.

All of the members of next year's staff, as shown above, are requested to meet this afternoon, Thursday, at 3:30 p. m., in the Department of Journalism. The plans for next year will be outlined and your attendance is imperative if you expect to be on the paper.

All students who have a copy of "Ruth" in their possession must return it to the Business Agent's office immediately, so that it can be returned. Otherwise, they must be paid for.

HERSHEL SCOTT WINS 1915 S. I. A. A. MEDAL

Hershel Scott, of Madisonville, a senior in the College of Agriculture, was awarded the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association medal for athletic and scholarship proficiency last week by the athletic committee. Scott has played four years on the 'Varsity eleven and was captain last year. He has an enviable record with the basketball team, is a member of Alpha Zeta, the honorary agricultural fraternity and a member of Lamp and Cross, the senior honorary fraternity.

CAFETERIA UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Captain A. E. Wells, who has been managing the university dining hall since its inauguration last fall, handed in his resignation last week, and will leave to accept the superintendency of a hotel at Blue Ridge, North Carolina, May 25.

Miss Mary E. Fisher, who has had charge of the culinary department at Patterson Hall, took charge of the Cafeteria Monday and will manage it the rest of the year. Miss Fisher has had charge of the girls' dormitory for several years and is an expert in food preparation.

KY. ART EXHIBIT AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The exhibit of about two hundred canvases of Kentucky's native artists, at the Lexington Public Library this week has met with the generous praise of all who have viewed the work. The Kentucky Art Exhibit is a movement in pursuance of the founding of a museum for Lexington and is given under the auspices of the Woman's Club. The beautiful array of paintings is the result of the enthusiastic promotion of Mrs. A. C. Zembrod. A prize of one hundred dollars will be awarded to the work chosen as the best by the judges.

The exhibit will continue through Friday evening and possibly through Saturday, being open to the public from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m.

WEAKLEY — HAWKINS

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Martha Weakley, of Shelbyville and Robert Dawson Hawkins, of Lexington. The marriage will take place the latter part of June.

Miss Weakley is a former university girl and attended State for two years, where the romance of the couple began.

Mr. Hawkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hawkins, of East High Street, and will graduate in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering this year.

MISS MARIE BECKER WINS IN ANNUAL DECLAMATION CONTEST

In the Philosphian Literary Society's annual declamatory contest in chapel last week, Miss Marie Becker, of Louisville, won the prize, a set of books valued at $10. Her subject was "The Garden Scene from Mary Stuart." Misses Virginia Stout and Vivian Delain were the other contestants.

Miss Rebecca Smith, of Paducah, won the essay contest on the subject of "The Influence of Literary Societies."

Miss Lois Ammerman read her winning essay of the contest held some time ago in the Horace Mann Literary Society.

S. S. COMBS WINS IN HENRY CLAY CONTEST

The Henry Clay Law Society held its annual oratorical contest for the Barker medal, in chapel Monday night. S. S. Combs, whose subject was "The Evolution of Peace," was returned the winner over the other candidates, B. D. Sartin, who spoke on "Force, the Arbitration of Nations," and Thomas Creekmore, whose speech was on "The American Spirit." Judge W. T. Lafferty, Professor J. T. C. Noe and Dr. J. J. Tigert were the judges.

President Barker, who is the donor of the medal given Monday night, made a speech in which he highly complimented the speakers and also said that he would endeavor to work up oratory, to a higher standard, in the university next year. It has been suggested that a chair of oratory be established in the university, but this is not probable for next year.

At the conclusion of the meeting, at which J. T. Gooch presided, the new officers of the society were installed. D. L. McNeill was elected for president; F. P. Mayo, vice president, and Thomas Creekmore, treasurer of the society next year.

field events on Stoll Field and in these the lads from Louisville Male High carried off the prize with a total of 27 1-5 points, Lexington was second with 19 1/4, and Paducah and Stanford finished third and fourth, with 18 and 14, respectively.

That the meet was close is evidenced by the fact that the winner of the individual medal, S. Embry, of Stanford, had a total of only ten points out of 117, he being the only man to win two first places. Simmons, of Richmond, was second, with nine counters.

No records were broken at the meet, but creditable marks were made in all the events.

The meet was promoted by the university and both Dr. W. L. Anderson and Professor C. P. Weaver, who were instrumental in carrying it out, were delighted with the success of the venture. The contestants and visitors were entertained by the alumni with sightseeing trips over the city, and the cantata, "Huth," was given in their honor Saturday night in chapel by the Choral Club of the university.

Nearly one hundred medals were awarded. Three were given in each event for first, second and third places. The largest individual point winner was given a gold medal and the school taking the largest number of points received a championship cup to be retained one year. To be retained permanently, it must be won by the same school three times.

TO THE CLASS OF '19.

"We, who are about to leave, salute you!"

We, who are rounding out the closing days of college life, greet the High School students who will throng the halls of our Alma Mater the coming year. Our achievements are but stepping stones on which you will rise, our progress only the foundation of your success, our mistakes your warnings. The University is yours, for the future is yours! We envy you.

Out of each Freshman class come the leaders of the future—the honor men, the athletic heroes, the dramatic stars, and the orators. Somewhere out in the High Schools of the State are the football captain for '18, the Junior president, and all the other men and women who will share the honors of their classes. Reflect therefore, you High School Seniors, who are planning to mingle your voices in the good old "S. U. Ky! Ky! Ky!" next fall, and pack your trunks carefully. Along with that new suit and those pennants, tuck in a determination to work, a loyalty for the Blue and White, and an honest desire to "mix" and make friends. Start right.

"The battle of Waterloo," said Wellington, "was won on the fields of Eton and Harrow." The future of Kentucky State University is being decided in the High Schools of the Commonwealth. The Class of '19 should be the best in our history.

"It's up to you!"
Are you game?

CHANGING THE NAME OF "THE IDEA."

The suggestion contained in the communication of "A Student," published in the "Students' Forum" of last week's IDEA, in regard to changing the name of our weekly publication for one more suitable, has met with the approval of the editors and seems to have been favorably considered by the students.

The disadvantages of the present name have been only too apparent to the management during the year just drawing to a close. In addition to the reasons given by "A Student," that the name "THE IDEA" is meaningless and does not indicate the nature of the paper, the experiences of the year have made apparent to us certain other reasons why the name should be changed. Chief among these, is that when other papers quote from THE IDEA, even if they do give us credit, practically none of the students, who read their paper can tell from the name "THE IDEA," which is signed to the clipping, that it was taken from the paper issued by the students of the State University of Kentucky. The best advertisements of a school are the clippings from its publications, but if no one can tell from what paper they are clipped, this advertisement is lost.

For the reasons given above, we have decided to act upon this suggestion and announce a contest, the conditions of which are given elsewhere, open to all of the students, in which a cash prize will be offered to the student who will suggest the best name for our weekly publication. We would suggest that the name be of such a nature that in itself it will indicate that the paper is the publication of the students of the State University of Kentucky, and offer as examples of college papers which are properly named, "The Miami Student," "The Missouri Miner," and "The University of Nebraska Awgwan." "THE IDEA" is not a name for a college paper and it should be changed, but if for any reason you prefer that the present name be continued in preference to any other, let us know about it, by writing out your reasons and dropping them in "THE IDEA" box at the north entrance of the Main Building.

USE YOUR BRAINS; MAKE TWO DOLLARS

A prize of two dollars will be given by Professor Grehan, head of the Journalism Department, to the student or professor of the university who will suggest the best name for our weekly publication, now known as "THE IDEA."

Write your suggestion for the new name, together with your own name on a sheet of paper and drop it into

THE IDEA box at the north entrance of the Main Building. Any student may make as many different suggestions as he wishes.

The new name should be of such a nature as in itself to indicate that the paper is published by the students of State University of Kentucky, and the winner of this contest together with the new name will be announced in next week's issue of THE IDEA.

This contest closes Monday, May 24, at 5:30 p. m.

HUM OF THE GADFLY

With Apologies to Luke MoLue
of Cincinnati Enquirer.

Excruciatingly Humorous.
A funny man we must confess,
I call the student bright, Who'll never write a letter, but
Will always let her write.

Correct.

"If a man could forecast what the future held in store for him he'd never go where he should not go," said Soph. "But somebody has to be in Maxson's classes," said Junior.

Alas, Too True.

That drowning men will clutch at straws,
As we have often heard it told,
Is especially true at exam. time
As soon as they are in a hole.

And We Missed it. (Vanderbilt Hustler.)

Since Stunt Night, Mary Garden and Ruth St. Denis have become "has-beens," when it comes to the "serpentine wiggle."

The Wise Fool.

"There is honor among students," quoth the Sage.
"Likewise an Honor System," corrected the Fool.

Oh Huh!

There's two weeks more of school for all,
And everybody's grieving.
It seems that we must always go
Just when the trees are leaving.

Shocking.

She—"What are the duties of the editor of the 'Woman's Magazine?'"
He—"She devotes most of her time to studying make-up, form and composition."
She—"Oh!"

A Fatal Flash.

Tall.
Ball.
Fall.
All.

Names is Names.

Park Street took the ten weeks Ag. course last year.

Yes, a Damp Good Time.

(Mississippi A. & M. Reflector.)
Well, we all had a good time in Columbus if it did rain and prevent the ball game.

Who's With 'Em?

"YOUR GIRL AND MINE"

A Toast.

Here's to the girl who has a beau,
Who loves her like her brothers,
The while she thinks she's the only one,
When she's only one of others.

They Are "Bears." (Vanderbilt Hustler.)

Night track has become a popular sport at Vanderbilt and the trackists flit around at night clad only in the garb of Adam minus the fig leaf.

Our Own Popular Songs.

THE NEWSPAPER GIRLS.
A hunch of girls one day thought they could show the boys just how THE IDEA should be gotten out e'en though it raised a row,
And so they took the work in hand to write it up in style,
And wrote it up in such a way to make the readers smile.

They had a chief, assistants, too, and each played well her part,
And boys were guessing, for they feared the girls would have no heart.
When Thursday came, there was a rush, to see what girls would do,
And when the boys saw what they'd done, some boys felt mighty blue.
They handed one or two to us—the others shook our hand

And said: "Go to it good and hard, old boy," and then we planned
To give the entire column to the girls who caused our fears,
And this we did—and now the girls are murmuring through their tears:

CHORUS.

"We did our best, we know we did; we had you up a tree,
"And when you saw what we had said, you quickly lost your glee;
"You cannot write! You knew it then and well you know it now,
"But don't think hard of us poor girls, who tried to show you how."

Get in Line, Men! Don't Shove!
(Note in Louisville Girls H. S. Record)
WANTED—A good-looking man to show me how to make love.

Our Own Minstrels.

"Mister Interlocutor, can you tell me why 'Fish and Scotty' are like a sharp pair of shears?"
"No, Mr. Bones, I cannot. Will you tell us why?"
"Because they are always ready to 'cut.'"
"As soon as the bodies of the crushed and mangled have been removed from the aisles, and ether administered to the fatally injured, the faculty will sing that pathetic little ballad, 'You Needn't Bring Your Books That Day, For We Will Stay in the Room.'"

Things to Worry About.

'The next Girls' Issue of THE IDEA will appear in about 350 days.

Our Weekly Special.

Fool Your Profs and Make a Fool of Yourself.

The Gadfly Says:

The excuse that took you two hours to figure out doesn't sound half so good while you are telling it to the prof.

There are girls who will boast that they've been to every game this year and haven't torn a coupon out of their ticket books yet.

In springtime certain studes get so lazy that they could sit in front of a camera for an hour and never blur the picture.

Patt. Hall is not like Old Dorm. Old Dorm will go to a baseball game to see the game.

He will stand in front of the Main Building with a "cig" in his mouth and blow smoke in her face every day and then wonder why she never gets on a street car ahead of him.

Never be fooled by appearances. The tender little dove across the aisle may be a member of the Honor System Committee.

Man may not be able to express emotion like a woman, but when he takes her into a soda fountain and she calls for only a five-cent drink, his heart knows such joy as she wots not of.

Those who know more than the profs are usually the first ones to hang out the S. O. S. signal of distress.

An estimation shows that the per capita wealth of this nation is $1,318.11, but a capitulation shows that a great many of us fall short of the amount by about $1,318.00.

The old-fashioned man who used to go to school to learn, now has a son who has to learn to go to school.

If we all knew as much as we pretend we do, we wouldn't need an Honor System.

Some students work their heads off in school and others take law.

The average student body is divided into two classes, those who know it and those who know they know it.

What has become of the o. f. student who used to eat his breakfast at 6 o'clock?

If some students were given their books in exams, they would have to ask where the problem was.

She will meet him at a dance, talk with him, walk with him, rave about his handsome features and his piercing, black eyes and say she'll love none but him, but when she accidentally sees him with another girl, Love's Finest Hopes spends a nickel on a jitney bus ride to the nearest 5,000-foot cliff and takes a tumble.

"AUF WIEDERSEHN."

They say a beastly submarine's in sight—
(Smoke up, Old Chap, draw close another chair)
There's no excuse at all for useless fright;
She knows that only passengers we bear.

My word! We've been torpedoed by the brutal (That smashing jar near threw me from my seat.)
This boat can't sink, no matter what they shoot;
But still, perhaps it's best to make retreat.

It's strange the foolish fear the steerage shows;
(How tight the kiddie, holds his mother's hand)
Why every hardy seaman on her knows
We're safe enough and well in sight of land.

Put on this life belt, Comrade, I can swim—
(This floating mansion will sink after all)
Besides, they'll rally to us with a vim
In answer to our hurried wireless call.

If we should part, and you're in port tonight—
(Our plans go topsy-turvy, now and then)

Just tell my waiting loved ones I'm all right—
One long hand-clasp, Old Friend;
we'll meet again.
—Canterbury.

WHO'S WHO AT STATE

JOHN McDONALD.

One of the busiest men on the campus is John McDonald. It is well recognized in the senior class that if you get John behind some project it is just about sure to "go through." He is, what is usually termed, a "live wire," and a glance at what he has done during his four years at State is quite convincing of that fact.

John is major of the battalion. Coming up here in his freshman year with a military record already established he has gone up with rapid strides and stopped short of nothing but the very top. One of the best and most proficient battalions we have ever had bears testimony to his effort and ability. Despite the responsibility of this position John found time this year to fill the office of Senior Class Treasurer and managed the finances in a way rarely equalled. He served last year on the Pan-Hellenic Council.

In the midst of greenhouses, laboratories or examining fine stock you will find John in his natural element; anything conducive to scientific agriculture appeals to him. He is "on the job" here, too, like he is in any other undertaking. That's why he earned a place on the honorary agricultural fraternity, Alpha Zeta, and was chosen this year as president of the chapter. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

John has always taken his honors modestly. Although a hard, earnest worker who believes in pushing through with vigor anything he attempts, he does it in a quiet way and with an unassuming manner which is quite becoming. John is a man with a wide influence and a large circle of friends and he will leave a place exceedingly hard to fill.

STROLLER OFFICERS FOR '14-'15 ELECTED

Pins Are Awarded Those Who Took Part in "Charley's Aunt" in This and Nearby Towns.

At a meeting of the "Strollers," held in the chapel Monday afternoon, officers were elected and pins awarded to those belonging to the cast which produced "Charley's Aunt" at the Ben All Theater and at several out-of-town play-houses during the past season.
Herbert Graham, of Frankfort, was elected president; Miss Katherine Mitchell, Bowling Green, vice president, and John Marsh, Maysville, secretary. The stage manager will not be elected until next fall.

The design of the pins adopted was a crossed sword and fool's bauble, surmounted by a mask and bearing the name of the organization and year in which it was won. The payment for these pins will be made from the funds of the club. Those who will receive pins are: Misses Rebecca Smith, Katherine Mitchell, Alice Gregory, Adella Williamson, Ina Darnall and Messrs. Leo Sandmann, Emory Frazier, Jno. Marsh, William Shilnick, Louis Macloskey and James MacConnell, also Herbert Graham, who was the stage manager.

All members of previous productions will be permitted to purchase pins for themselves if they so desire. The banquet for the cast will be held at the Phoenix Hotel Friday night.

"BISCUIT" REED NOW A LEXINGTON "COLT"

Fans who attended Sunday's game at League Park between the Lexington Colts and the Charleston club, were given a surprise when "Biscuit" Reed, former backstop on the university team, slipped his features in the bird cage and began receiving for the Colts.
"Biscuit" was signed by Manager Guyn Saturday night to take the place of Blackwell, and with the exception of a couple of bad pegs to bases, did excellent work for his initial appearance. His two-bagger gave them a taste of what they might expect when he settled down.

In Monday's game, he caught a perfect game of ball, playing behind the bat without a bobble. His two hits at critical time relieved the tension considerably and started the scoring for the Colts.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SWEATERS AWARDED

Five members of the 1914-1915 girls' basketball team were awarded their
"K" sweaters last week by Dr. J. J.
Tigert, who coached the team. Because of the fact that sweaters were not given last year, all received two sweaters apiece. They were Misses Florence Hughes, Elsie Heller, Olive Taul, Natalie Wood and Nancy Innes.
Miss Ruth McChesney, who was a member of the 1913-14 team, and who is now physical director at the Frankfort High School, was awarded one sweater. The sweaters are white with a blue "K" on the left side.

ECONOMIC CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

The inauguration meeting of a new club will be held tonight in the Education Building. An Economics Club is to be organized for the purpose of discussing problems of politics, government and business, and it is proposed next year to follow the acts of Congress and the Legislature, both of which will be in session, with debates, short papers and round table discussion. Such topics as the psychology of business advertising, the interpretation of the effects of the war on business and other subjects such as may be suggested by the members will be considered.

Everyone is eligible to membership, whether he has had a course in economics or not, and everyone who is interested in politics, and in the relation of politics to business, is welcome and is urged to join. The object in organizing at this time is to avoid the confusion of the opening weeks of school and to be in a position to start without a hitch in the latter part of September. As now proposed, meetings are to be held monthly and to students who have not the time to give to a weekly society, but who are interested in economic and political problems, this organization should be a welcome one.

WILDCATS DEFEAT E. L. MARCH TEAM

In a practice game on Stoll Field
Tuesday afternoon the Wildcats trimmed the E. L. March amateur team by a 11-to-2 tally. Thomas and Park, as mound artists, held the visitors down to five cracks at the spheroid. The Cats hurricaned for eight tallies in the initial frame, but the Marchers put the screws on and let them ring up only three more round trips in the rest of the battle.

Score by Innings.

UNIVERSITY BASEBALL PLAYERS IN DEMAND

Three Men Take League Berths and a Fourth is Slated For a Try-Out Soon.

The acquisition of "Biscuit" Reed by the Lexington Colts seems to have started the league bug to flying and as a result, other members of the Varsity are getting into fast company.

Paul Gossage, of the Law College, who has been handling the Kittens, left Tuesday night to report to the Charlottesville club of the North Carolina League, as a pitcher. Gossage was leading hurler on the Owensboro club of the Kltty League for two years and was fourth pitcher in the league at the close of the season. He was made a free agent when the league failed to revive this season.

Wrasty Wright, star outfielder, has been notified by Manager Joe Birmingham to report to the Cleveland Americans next week. He will work in the outer gardens.

It is expected that Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Athletics, will send a scout to see Friday's game and Jim Park in action. Connie Mack wrote Captain "Jimmy" earlier in the season that a try-out was waiting for him, but at the time Parks' throwing arm had not recovered from last fall's football injuries. He has now gained his former speed and control and will do the mound work in Friday's game with DePauw University.

KENTUCKY ACADEMY OF SCIENCE HOLDS MEETING

Professors Miller and Peters Are Elected Officers For Ensuing Year

The second annual meeting of the Kentucky Academy of Science was held Saturday in the lecture room of the Chemistry Building. Dr. J. H. Kastle, the retiring president of the organization, presided. During the morning session officers were elected as follows: Professor N. F. Smith, of Centre College, Danville, president; Professor A. M. Miller, of the State University, vice president; Dr. A. M. Peters, of the Agricultural Experiment Station of the State University, secretary, and Professor Garnett Ryland, of Georgetown, treasurer.

At noon, luncheon was served at the Phoenix Hotel to the members of the academy, numbering about forty and composed of professors and instructors of the universities of the State and also men in industrial lines and in private life interested in scientific research.

During the afternoon session, which was open to the public, an interesting lecture was delivered by Professor Dayton C. Miller, of Cleveland, Ohio, on "The Science of Musical Sounds." Mr. Miller was assisted by some of the singers among the students at the university, and the lecture as illustrated, was intensely interesting.

The new "quanta" theory of energy was discussed by Professor N. F. Smith, of Centre College, Danville, whose subject was "Relations Between Matter and Radiant Energy."

Dr. G. D. Buckner, of the Department of Chemical Research of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, read a paper on "The Translation of the Mineral Constituents of Certain Plants During Growth."

A paper on "The Removal of Mineral Plant Food by Drainage Waters," was read by Mr. McHargue, of the Department of Chemistry, of the Experiment Station, in which he showed the large amounts of minerals from soils which are left unprotected during the winter.

The concluding talk of the program was given by Dr. J. H. Kastle, the retiring president. His subject was a discussion of recent advances in our knowledge of animal nutrition in relation to growth.

Plans were discussed for the entertainment of the delegates for the federation. A charming talk was made by Dean Hamilton. As the meeting adjourned happy wishes were exchanged for the summer vacation, and for the progress of the club next year.

FACULTY ADOPTS PLAN OF HONOR COMMITTEE

Recommendations Are Submitted by Honor System Committee and Student Welfare Committee.

At a faculty meeting last week the recommendations of the Student Honor Council were adopted regarding the conduct of examinations under the Honor System, now in force. The recommendations were to make the applications of the laws of the system broader than heretofore, and to put the students entirely on their own resources in examinations.

The system has been in force over three years and the general sentiment is that it should be strongly upheld.

The recommendations in full are:
1. We recommend that the general faculty define the status of the student under suspension:

"In accordance with this recommendation, the general faculty at its regular meeting on April 2d, passed the following resolution:

"That suspension means exclusion from all college grounds and all social and athletic functions. When a student is suspended, he will be given notice of the suspension and of the penalty, and will be notified that Patterson Hall and all other property owned by the university is considered a part of the campus. No student, under suspension, shall be employed by or receive any salary or pay for services from any department of the university including the Experiment Station."

The following recommendations were adopted by the general faculty at a special meeting on May 11th:

2. That written notice shall be given by the secretary or proper officer to the instructors in whose courses students have been found cheating and for which they have been suspended from the institution.

3. That such students be not allowed credit in these courses but be compelled to take such work over again.

4. That making the Honor System optional on the vote of the class is entirely contrary to the spirit of the system.

5. Inasmuch as the student committee is powerless to enforce its decisions without sanction of the general faculty, we further recommend that any violation of the Honor System or failure to abide by the decisions of the Honor Committee shall be brought before the regular Committee of Discipline and that such violations shall render the guilty person liable to expulsion from the university.

6. That whereas it is desirable for members of the faculty to report any evidence of cheating to the Student Committee for their consideration and co-operate with the Student Committee in every way possible whenever called upon by the committee to so assist them, yet no member of the faculty should in any way interfere or participate in the operation of the system except when expressly invited to do so.

Norwood was chosen president of the board to succeed Professor Melcher, while J. M. Kelly is to succeed Mr. Norwood as vice president.

Professor Mathews, who has been connected with the educational system of Lexington for some time, is the Professor of Horticulture at State University, and head of that department in the Experiment Station. This election will stand until November, when a new ballot for a school board will be cast.
